THE NEWS.—The News from India by the Europa, is very interesting. Reinforcements for the British were arriving daily, and the troops were on the offensive Havelock was safe.

The Kansas Legislature organized on the 8th, and has doubtless before this time finished its work. There was great excitement in the Territory.

From Oregon, we learn that the people had rejected Slavery, submitted to them with their proposed constitution.

Walker was at San Juan del Norte, but several vessels of war were looking after him.

The first camel train had arrived safely at Los Angelos, California.

La Pointe heard from--The Returns all in.

The official returns from La Pointe county reached Madison on Saturday. They give 43 votes for the Democratic ticket—all the votes cast. But one poll was opened. The Argus foots up Randall's majority, somebow, doubtless by counting the five towns of Jefferson or Dodge, and perhaps other supplemental returns, at 155. It is enough, till we get the official canvas to be made to-day, that Randall, Hastings and McGraw are elected.

The State officers for the ensuing year, therefore, are:

A. W. Randall, (Rep.), Governor.
E. D. Campbell. (Dem.), Lt. Governor.
D. W. Jones, (Dem.), Sec'y of State.
S. D. Hastings, (Rep.), Treasurer.
Gabriel Bouck, (Dem.), Attorney General.
J. C. Squires, (Dem.), Bank Comptroller.
Lyman C. Draper, (Dem.), State Superintendent.
Edward MacGraw, (Rep.), State Prison Commissioner.

It is well that we have saved the Governor Treasurer and Prison Commissioner. The Republican party, by its apathy, and gross neglect of the duty of exercising the elective franchise, deserved to lose everything.

Messrs. Schurz, Thomas, Jackson, McGregor and McMynn are thorough Republicans, abundantly qualified for the posts for which they were nominated, and they ought to have been elected—the whole ticket ought to have had a majority of ten thousand.

The News from Washington.

The despatches and letters from Washington which we publish show that the Kansas business is doing its work at Washington. The sins of the Democracy have returned to plague them.—The President has committed himself entirely to the Pro-Slavery leaders, and his control of nominations to important posts secures him a following of doughfaces from the free States. Douglas sees that a rupture between the Northern and Southern factions of his party is inevitable, and chooses to lead on the Northern side. It must be confessed that he makes a gallant stand. The "Kansas-shrieking" to be done bythose of his party who stand by him, will be awful to hear.

It will be observed that the friends of the Administration admit that Secretary Stanton was removed for calling the Kansas Legislature together—a crime worthy of decapitation, in the view of the President.

The dance has fairly commenced; choose you, partners, democrats of Wisconsin!

30TH SENATORIAL DISTRICT.—The official canvass in this district is as follows:

	Republican. FLINT.	Democrat. TUCKER.
Crawford,	270	382
Bad Ax,	514	510
Monroe,	556	428
Buffalo,	190	361
	1530	1631

The following, from the Viroqua Times, in relation to this canvass, discloses a degree of carelessness on the part of the returning officers which is highly censurable;

La Crosse returns were thrown out on account of being dated eighteen hundred and fifty five.—Jackson and Trempelean returns were not received until the day after the canvass. LaCrosse county gave Tucker about 170 majority, and as it was thrown out, had Trempelean and Jackson returns been sent in season, which gave Flint 112 majority, the canvassers would have given Flint the certificate of election, as he would then have had 11 majority.

"KEEPING STEP TO THE MUSIC OF THE UNION."—The Washington Union, central organ of the "National Democracy" and the Federal Administration, still insists "that Kansas ought to be admitted as a State, and that it is not an essential prerequisite that its Constitution should be submitted for popular ratification."

The Democracy in general, and Federal Officeholders in particular, are required and expected to "keep step to the music of the Union."

VENISON.—The season for deer hunting has fairly commenced, as the abundance of venison in the market gives ample proof. Last Friday and Saturday we noticed in our streets a large delegation of Ottawa Indians, all mounted on ponies which were heavily laden with deer meat. It sold from 5 to 7 cents per lb. Many feared that the wholesale slaughter of deer last winter after the great snow storm, when venison became a drug in the market, would cause a scarcity of this delicious meat for the future; but it does not appear to be the case, judging from the quantics offered for sale.—Green Bay Advocate Dec. 20th.

A MILWAUKEE THIEF ARRESTED.—Some three or four weeks since, a mah named Chas. Pragon ran away from Milwaukee with another 'man's wife, and a portion of some property belonging to a German emigrant, which was stolen from the latter some year ago. Pragon was runner to a German boarding house, kept by two brothers named Warnke, and the trunk was lost in the house, and a portion of the contents found subsequently with Pragon. The trunk and contents were valued at $300. On Friday, Lieut. Kauffmann arrested Pragon at a on house Clark street, near the Rock Island depot, and he was sent back to Milwaukee yesterday, in charge of the Chief of Police of that city.—Chicago Democrat of yesterday.

Special Despatches to the N. Y. Tribune.

Important from Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.

The crime for which Stanton was beheaded, as I have telegraphed to the Tribune last night, was admitted on the floor of the Senate to be the calling of a Session of the Territorial Legislature of Kansas. The fact of his having done so was communicated to the Administration yesterday, by a telegraph disp. tch from St. Louis, sent by a Mr. Martin, who had been dispatched to Kansas, as a secret agent, or to speak plain, a spy of the Government, to observe and report privately upon the conduct of the officials of the Territory.

In secret session to-day, Senator Seward, in the course of a brilliant and powerful speech, commented with just severity on the extraordinary and unprecedented introduction into our Government of the Japanese system of espionage. The emperors of Japan make constant use of spies to watch and report upon the conduct of the viceroys, governors of provinces and other considerable officers. They are employed to such an extent that some writers term them the multospring of the government. The Japanese call them "met suke" which the Dutch writers interpret to mean "steady looker," or observer. They are sent secretly as was Mr. Martin, and their presence and function only become known when the head of the unlucky official is suddenly taken off, like that of Mr. Stanton.

A noticeable fact, the significance of which is very obvious, was a remark that fell from Senator Mason. It was urged by the Administration Senators that there was a necessity that the nomination of Denver should be confirmed forthwith, as otherwise there would be an interregnum in the Territory. There would be no Governor. They were reminded that Gov. Walker was still in office, and that he probably would soon return to Kansas. Mr. Mason replied that the moment Gov. Walker began to turn his footsteps toward Kansas he would undergo the fate of Mr. Stanton.

It is probable, from this intimation, that the President will not wait for Walker to begin his journey in the direction of that Territory so fatal to Governors. He will, doubtless, soon be removed.

The truth can no longer be disguised, that Mr. Buchanan has thrown himself editrely into the hands of the South. The country may be prepared to expect henceforth a decided, thorough-going pro slavery policy.

The Administration papers, The Star and The States, sessil Mr. Douglas, this evening, as a renegade from the Democratic party. The Democrats here generally give him up as lost to them. A Senator, in conversation yesterday, expressed surprise that Mr. Douglas should have turned against the Scuty, which had to long considered him as their property.

"If surprises me," said Senator Wade," because I never expected to see a slave insurrection."

A question was raised whether Stanton was actually removed by any other act than by the message Sent to the Senate, which, it was contended, did not effect it, as in the last Congress a successor was nominated, vice Judge Lecompte removed, yet the latter was retained by the non-action of the Senate.

Important from Washington.

Special Despatch to the N. Y. Herald.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.

A caucus of Southern Senators (18 in number) was held last evening to consider what course they should pursue in reference to Senator Douglas. I understand they denounced his course, and unanimously read him out of the party.

Senator Douglas seems sanguine that the prompt passage of the "Toombs bill" in reference to Kansas, would heal all the differences in the democratic ranks, and make the party impregnable North and South. He thinks the Lecompton Constitution will be rejected here whether presented with or without the slavery clause.

The Indians and Utah.

[Correspondence of the Philadelphia Press.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8, 1857.

Various tribes have offered their services to the Federal Government to assist in the war against the Mormons. The secret of Brigham Young's great power during the last six years, is in the fact that he has been enabled to corrupt the Indian tribes. Since the Government has discovered this, it has determined to proceed differently, and to invoke the aid of the Indian Auxiliaries. It is said that the Snake Indians have offered 900 warriors for this service.

THE FIGHT AT WASHINGTON.—The Tribune of the 10th says, concerning the Kansas war at Washington:

The struggle of Stephen A. Douglas, with the Slave Power will be a magnificent spectacle to witness. He is equal to the fight, and with the North to back him, will come out of it victorious if his courage does not fail him. He has begun the battle splendidly and I think will not back out.

A breach in the Democratic ranks is inevitable. There is no possibility of a reconciliation. The President makes his position a strict test, and the other side feel ready for war on his nominations in retaliation. Some of the Northern Democracy hesitate to take ground; they are looking after patronage.

Thus far, Messrs. Bigler, Thompson, Wright, Pugh, Bright, Fitch and Jones, sustain the Administration. Douglas, Stuart and Broderick are in opposition. Allen and Gwin are doubtful.—Mr. Pugh informed Steadman yesterday of his determination.

Marine.

RETURNED.—The tug Oswego, which started three or four days since to go the assistance of a wrecked vessel above Presque Isle, backed out and returned yesterday. She went up and took a look into Lake Huron, and concluded the weather looked too stormy, and the risk was too great.—Det. Adv. 10th.

LAYING UP.—The L. N. Co's. tugs Leviathan and Rescue will go into winter quarters at this port to day. All the tugs of this Company are now laid up.—Ib.

SCHOONER GAME COCK.—The tug Rescue came down the river yesterday with this schooner in tow, and she is now safely in dry dock, where she will undergo repairs. She has suffered no very material damage, except that one or two holes were pounded in her bottom while she was on the rocks, and she is slightly strained.—Det Adv. 10th.

THE UNCLE BEN.—The tugs Leviathan and Rescue did not go to the Uncle Ben after returning from Goderich, as was reported, and will not go. The Leviathan took a look at her when she went up to the Game Cock, but did nothing. The probabilities are that the Uncle Ben will go to pieces during the winter, although there is a possibility that she may stand it through the season in a good shape. As soon as the weather becomes settled, her owner will go up to her by land, and if she is found broken and likely to go to pieces, will take her machinery out of her, put it in good shape, will leave her and run the risk of getting her off in the spring. She is owned by D. W. Miner, of this city, (not by the L. N. Co's, as heretofore stated,) was valued at $17,000, and was uninsured. She was employed in the service of the Lake Navigation Co., of which Mr. M. is the Detroit agent.—Det. Adv. 10th.

THE ERIE CANAL.—The Buffalo Commercial, of Saturday evening says:

The following notice has been issued by the Canal Commissioners:

The closing of the Canals is extended to the 15th inst.

H. FITZHUGH,
S. S. WEALLON,
C. H. SHERRILL,

Albany, Dec. 10, 1857. Canal Commissioners.

This will enable all boats to arrive at their destination provided the weather is not cold enough to close the canal by ice. By this time, the last boat bound for tide-water, must be east of Utica, and the last of those laden with goods for the west, must be this side of Rochester. We are informed that every boat of the Western Transportation Co., bound either way, has arrived at its destined point, and the propeller Missouri carries out to-day the last cargo of the westward bound freight. During the late cold snap, this company was untiring in its efforts to keep the canal open, and it is gratifying to know that it is rewarded by getting all its freight through.

ARRIVAL OF MR. TEN BROECK.—We are gratified at being able to announce the return of Mr. Richard Ten Broeck and his accomplished lady to their native land. As we expected, we find Mr. T. B., in good spirits; and not only well satisfied with his campaign upon the English Turf, but with a full determination to try his fortune, and the qualities of American racing stock, there, during the ensuing year. Mr. Ten Broeck has not yet developed his intentions, as to what stock he will select for his second trial; but the propability is, that the ensuing contests on the Congaree, Bascombe, Metairie, Ten Broeck, Lafayette, and Central Courses will develop enough of the first class "flyers" to tempt his judgement, and induce him to make the second heat in the grand national contest with renewed spirit. Mr Ten Broeck remains here for a few days, and then goes westward to Kentucky.—Porter's Spirit of the Times.

CITY MATTERS.

For the Daily Sentinel.

The Distress Among the Poor.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 14, '57.

Messrs. Editors:—Having heard persons say that there was not so much misery in Milwaukee as many thought, and having seen myself a great deal of it in a very few days, I think it will be a pleasure for you to awaken the sympathy of the citizens of this city, by inserting the following lines.

When the nursling finds blood where he should find milk, when woman cannot go out to receive the help offered to them for want of clothing, when stout and laborious men sheds tears at seeing his children dying for food, when a dying mother must in that awful moment see her four children without nourishment, when those who have never sought for the charity of the People are forced to rely on it for subsistence, when the general cry is for work, and the general answer is no work, then it is time for the friends of the Poor to raise their voice in their behalf.

Let every one who has, help him who has not; let Christian charity, or if one likes it better, only philanthropic love, be awakened in every heart; let every one help as much as it is in his power the societies established to relieve the poor. Provisions, money, clothing, fuel—all is acceptable. Then we will see joy take the place of sorrow and tears, and a blessing be on the lips of those whom necessity has thrown on public charity. Yours respectfully,

J. B. PEDELUPE,
Episcopal City Missionary.

We add a few words to the note of the worthy City Missionary. In a visit to the Soup House yesterday, we learned that on Saturday, 110 persons were furnished with food, and up to half past twelve yesterday, 84 had obtained meals.—Generally, the food is furnished at the table, on presentation of the single ticket issued by the managers and sold to citizens, and by them given to applicants. Other cases of destitution are found by the Missionaries and sent to the room for meals. In some few cases, where widows are found with children, entirely destitute, the case having been thoroughly investigated, tickets are given which enable the family to get food daily. The Relief Society has obtained a quantity of tickets and uses them in distribution to the needy. We think that the Relief Society, with its host of collectors, ought to be able to provide amply for all the expenses of the Soup Room, rather than that the ladies who have charge of the latter, and kindly give their attention to it, should be expected to furnish tickets to the Society.

The enterprise in which Miss HULL and her associates are engaged, is a noble one, and we recommend those who have funds or provisions to spare to call at the room about noon, and witness the scene, and leave behind them a liberal token of their interest in the undertaking.

Communication from Mr. Kuehn.

EDITORS DAILY SENTINEL, GENTLEMEN:—In reply to the remarks of John B. Edwards, late City Comptroller, which I notice in your paper of yesterday, I beg leave to state through your paper, that the resolution offered by me in the Common Council calling on the several Railroad Companies for a statement of the bonds issued to them, was made indispensible by the insufficiency of the records on file in the City Clerk's Office concerning this matter, the City Clerk only holding the receipts of the several Companies for the delivery of these bonds, and no list being on file nor any other entry made in his office.

In regard to the other remarks as to my position formerly as City Treasurer and now as Alderman, I leave this matter entirely to the public to decide. FERD KUEHN

COUNTY COURT OF MILWAUKEE CO.—The case of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church vs. Henry Buning, was tried in the County Court before Judge Paine last week, and resulted in a verdict being given in favor of the defendant.—Henry Buning it seems was one of the trustees of this church, and after a time the majority of the members became dissatisfied with the course pursued by him in relation to a dispute as to whether the minister preached the Orthodox or Evangelical doctrine or not, the majority siding against him. The majority elected a new set o Trustees, as the witnesses expressed themselves. They also put a padlock upon the church door, which the defendant removed to obtain access for worship. For this act, the action of trespass was brought.

POLICE COURT, Dec. 14th.—Drunk and Disorderly.—Patrick O'Neil, fined $10 and costs; Gotlieb Parker, and August Degman, fined $5 and costs each; Daniel Sullivan, fined $3 and costs.

STEALING HOGS.—Two brothers named John and Patrick Bennett, were examined on a charge of stealing two hogs from the Depot of the M & M R R, and committed in default of $300 bail each to await the action of the Grand Jury.

John Gibbs was fined $5 and costs for committing an assault and battery upon John Stinger. L. Seely was fined $1 for driving on the side walk.

OFF FOR EUROPE.—Among the passengers by the Africa, which sailed from New York for Liverpool on Wednesday last, were Messrs. ALEXANDER MITCHELL, JAMES CHRISTIE and ROLAND OLMSTED, of this city. If the same fine weather prevails on the Atlantic that we have enjoyed here ever since December set in, and more especially during the last week, the parting wishes of the numerous friends of these gentlemen for a pleasant voyage will be abundantly gratified.

TAX-PAYERS MEETING.—The general meeting of the Tax-payers of the city, called at Market Hall, Monday evening, was necessarily postponed, in consequence of the pre-engagement of the Hall. The meeting, we learn, will probably be held to-morrow (Wednesday) evening, either at Market, or Albany Hall. It promises to be most fully attended.

HOLIDAY ADVERTISEMENTS.—Parties desirous of advertising Holiday Gifts, as well as all others who may wish to let the public know what they have to sell, are reminded that the Sentinel has very much the largest circulation of any paper published in this city. See List of Letters in the P. O., advertised in to-day's Sentinel, pursuant to law, as official evidence of this fact.

THE WALKER HOUSE.—The Elkhorn Independent says of this Hotel, under its present management:

Messrs. Hasbrouck & Pearce have been proprietors for the last six months, and better caterers need not be desired. It has not been our fortune, in a long, to be so highly pleased with a day's entertainment as we were there the other day, and we can most cheerfully commend the house to the public.

☞ In another column is the advertisement of the great sale of Furs from Chicago. Yesterday they sold at very low prices, and as this day is the last on which they can sell goods, we advise all those who want to make Christmas presents, especially the Ladies, to call to-day from 8½ to 9½ A. M., and view the assortment.

Mr. G. G. Levi the celebrated auctioneer of Chicago, sells the assortment.

SALARY OF THE POLICE JUSTICE.—In the items of city expenses, &c., which we printed yesterday, we put down the salary of the Police Justice at $2,800. This is a slight error, as Justice Welworth receives but $2,500, including clerk hire, which is $600.

Thompson & Co., had obtained assistance from the Bank of England, and would forthwith resume at the Bank of England, and at the discount market there was a further subsidence of the pressure, and loans on the stock exchange were obt inable at 4 and 6 per cent. It was understood that the Bank of England had returned to a point within the limits authorized by their charter.

The creditors of Naylor, Vickers & Co., had resolved to accept payment in full in four installments, and leave the firm the full management of their affairs.

On Thursday there was more buoyancy on the stock exchange, than for several weeks. At the Banks there was a full but increased demand in the discount market—more ease was evinced.

On the stock exchange there was no enquiry for money, and loans were freely offered on good securities at 5 per cent.

The creditors of Dennistoun & Co., had agreed to accept in six instalments, extending over a period terminating on the 30th of June, 1860, with 5 per cent. interest on each installment. No further failures in London were announced.—From Hamburg the following additional failures were reported: B. Goosin, Jr., Muller & Kessler, J. Muller, Geb, Rubin, Ethiel & Co. Confidence in that city had greatly revived, under the influence of the new guarantee fund.

Ullburg & Kramer had resumed payment; on Friday there was still less demand for money, although the applications at the bank continued heavy; the weekly bank rates exhibited an increase in bullion of 780,000 pounds and return over a half a million of Government securities.—The influx of gold steadily continues.

The Times says the Government will not bring forward any financial measures till February.

INDIA.—The overland mail had arrived at Trieste which dates from Calcutta, Oct. 23d, and Bombay, Nov. 2d. 15 troop ships from England had arrived at various indian ports with about 6,000 troops. Lucknow was safe, and the divisions under Outram and Havelock were both in the Presidency. The enemy were said to be in great force in the vicinity, and very strong in artillery. A convoy of provisions had arrived at Lucknow shortly after its relief, and reinforcements of 2,000 men, it was supposed, would reach them from Cawnpore about the 24th of Oct.

A column of 3,000 men under Gen. Greathead was also on its way to Lucknow, and was expected there about the 30th of October, when the British force would number 7,000 men.

Greathead's column defeated a large body of Delhi fugitives, with heavy loss to the latter, on the 4th of October. On the same day, also, they stormed and destroyed the Fort Mallaghur, which the enemy had seized on the 5th. They beat the rebels at Allaigher, cutting up 400 of them. The column then proceeded to Agra, and reached that place on the 14th of October, when it was suddenly attacked by a large body of mutineers, who were repulsed with a loss of all their guns, 43 in number, a large amount of treasure, and 1,000 killed. The British loss was small.

Col. Wilson had attacked and defeated the rebels at Bathoor, driving them out of a strong position.

The King of Delhi was to be tried by a military commission. Two more of his sons had been shot.

Reports were rife of threatening disturbances at Hyderabad. Nena Sahib was said to be near Bithoor again. The fall of Delhi had a marked affect in Meerut and contiguous districts. Arrears of revenue were being brought in rapidly, and loyalty was the order of the day in the north-western provinces.

Part of the Bombay regiment had mutined at Deesa.

The Europeans at Lauger, above 1,000 in number, were still in the Fort, and calling urgently for relief. Fears were entertained for their safety. Part of the 82d regiment, infantry, had mutined at Dhesghur, and two regimonts of the Kotah, contingent, had also mutined and murdered the political agents.

Eight men of the Bombay Grenadiers were executed at Ahmedabad, for plotting an insurrection.

A marked coldness is said to be apparent between France and Rome, on account of the latter refusing to grant reforms.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Ministers will, on the assembling of Parliament, propose the total abolition of the East India Company Government, and the Indian empire will be brought under the control of the crown and Parliament.

The New Kansas Legislature.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 14,

The special session of the Kansas Legislature organized on the 8th, by the election of C. W. Babcock President of the Council, and G. W. Dietzler Speaker of the House. Stanton in his message, says:—"In consequence of recent events having produced profound agitation in the public mind, and a sense of wrong and injustice, whether well or ill founded, and an apprehension of greater evils to arise therefrom, have aroused the people of the Territory to a condition of dangerous excitement, I find myself compelled, by a sense of duty to call you together, that you may adopt prompt legislative measures to avert the calamities which threaten the public peace." After receiving the formation and action of the Convention, Stanton recommends the passage of an act directing an election to be held, under the different officers, on the same day and in the same place provided for by the proclamation of the President, and authorizing the people to vote for the Constitution in either form presented by the Convention; also, against the Constitution in both forms. He also recommends the passage of a law making a fraudulent return of votes, felony, with suitable punishment.

Kansas letters to the Republican, states that intense excitement prevails among all classes of people in the Territory, and the probabilities are that the party opposed to the Lecompton Convention will not permit the election to take place.

Lane with 500 or 400 men are encamped near Lecompton. Threats have been made to drive Calhoun and the members of the Convention out of the Territory, but no outbreak is as yet attempted. The Leavenworth Ledger, of the 9th says:—An express has just arrived from Utah. Col. Sumner arrived here last night. Capt. Van Vliet passed through Leavenworth post haste on Saturday morning. These rapid movements are supposed to have reference to the Utah army, or he may be the bearer of instructions to Gen. Denver, or Harney, commander of the troops in Kansas.

Later from California.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 14.

The Empire City arrived at her wharf this morning.

The Oregon election resulted in the rejection of slavery, and the exclusion of free negroes from the Territory.

Lieut. Beal's camel train, from San Antonio, arrived at Los Angeles on the 9th of November, all in good condition.

CENTRAL AMERICA.—Gen. Walker before landing at Punta Arenas, sent a company up the Colorado river.

The Nicaraguans have Gen. Canty penned up on the lake.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.

The steamship Star of the West, from Aspinwall, with the California mails, arrived this morning.

The John L. Stephens brought down to Panama upwards of $2,709,000 in treasure. She passed the Sonora Nov. 25th, with the New York mails and passengers of the 5th.

Gen. Walker landed 300 men at San Juan del Norte, and took possession of the town.

A Lieutenant of the Saratoga, who happened to be on shore, was ordered by Walker to go on his (the Lieut.) ship. On the evening of the 3d, the frigate Wabash, together with the English ship-of-the-line Brunswick, and the steam frigate Leopold, sailed for San Juan, which place they would blockade. They would also probably take measures to prevent Walker's troops from passing up the river.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.

The Adriatic left the light ship at 5 P. M. on the 23d ult., and was passed by the Europa at noon on the 1st, when about 600 miles from Liverpool. She probably reached Liverpool on Tuesday the 4d inst., thus making the run from the light ship at Sandy Hook, to Liverpool in about 9 days and 18 hours.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 14.

The Kansas City Journal of Commerce of the 5th, says that Jas. Meagans, trader to the Green River, arrived on Tuesday, being the latest arrival from Utah. Magesans accounts confirm the previous advices. He reports nearly all the emigrant trains as suffering from Mormon depredations, their wagons being burned and cattle stolen. Large quantities of grain and forage, stored at Fort Bridges, were burned by Mormons to prevent their purchase by Government. They also burned the grass on the route beyond Fort Bridges. Snow was three feet deep on the mountains, and the country was covered for east of the Bear River. Buffalo were abundant.

Prof. De Grath.—We have been called upon during the past week by Professor CHARLES DE GRATH, of No. 89 South Eighth street, who has exhibited to us conclusive proof that he is the original inventor and manufacturer of the article known as DE GRATH'S ELECTRIC OIL, the preparation and sale of which has long carried on by him in this city, while unconnected in business with any one. We feel bound to make this statement in justice to Professor De Grath, who is certainly entitled to whatever credit is due to the first introduction of this medicine.—City Item, May 9d.

The public here see what editors say about my genuine Electric Oil. The Professor would merely inform the public and his numerous customers throughout the United States, that he continues the manufacture of this celebrated Oil at the old stand, and though pushed to all orders, he has put on extra force, and will soon have a full supply on hand. Rheumatism and other diseases are cured in a few minutes, by this celebrated remedy. And I will pay $25 for the arrest of a low scamp advertising to sell Electric Oil, and deceiving the public with bogus names as chemists, &c., &c.

Sole manufacturer and proprietor in the world,

WORTH KNOWING.—Prof. Wood, whose ad vertisement will be found in another column, has discovered a remedy for the gray and bald, which is at once a practicable agency, it requires no dying, no wig, or extraordinary trouble. There can be no doubt whatever of its efficacy. We have seen testimonials almost without number, and from men of great intelligence, high standing and moral worth.

Those who have been bald for years are now wearing their own hair, and appear ten years younger than they did six months ago. As in most cases grey hairs and bald heads are both premature and unnatural, it is a duty to remedy them by the natural and undoubted means which Prof. Wood has invented, and now kindly offers to the afflicted. Read his advertisement, try his wonderful remedy, and give the Prof. a new testimonial. —Memphis Whig.

MILWAUKEE:

TUESDAY MORNING, DEC. 15.

A Mammoth R. R. Corporation.

The Albany Evening Journal of the 9th inst. contains a full abstract of the Annual Report that day submitted by the Directors of the New York Central Rail Road to the Stockholders. It abounds in curious and suggestive facts, some of which our readers may be interested in knowing. The aggregate cost of the road and equipment, up to the present time, has been thirty million, five hundred and fifteen thousand, eight hundred and fifteen dollars. Of this aggregate, something over ten million was for the superstructure, about seven millions for grading, five millions for lands, damages and fences, two and a third millions for locomotives, nearly three millions for cars, rather more than a million for station buildings, and eight hundred thousand dollars for bridges.

The aggregate length of the road is 555.38 miles; length of double track, 311.80; of branches, 258.13; weight of rail, 56 to 75 lbs; No. of locomotive, engine houses and shops, 38; of locomotives, 218; of eight wheel first-class passenger cars, 196; 2d class, ditto, 74; of baggage, mail and express cars, 64; of freight cars, 2,707 gravel and other service cars, 285.

The average rate of fare, for first-class passengers, (way and through,) two cents; second class one cent; average for all classes, 1,92; average rate per mile on all classes of freight 3.936.

The number of passengers, of all classes, carried during the year, was 2,609,947; and the number of tons freight was 838,791. The average rate of speed for ordinary passenger trains, including all stops, was 21 miles per hour; of express trains, 29 miles per hour, and of freight trains, 12 miles per hour. When in motion, these trains travelled at the rate 28, 35 and 15 miles per hour, respectively.

The cost of repairing and maintaining the roadway, during the year, was $1,315,462; and of the machinery $598,988, about half of which was for repairs to locomotives. The cost of operating the road for the year was $2,238,989, the largest items being, $847,853 for fuel; $223,164 for agents and clerks; $201,581 for loading and unloading freight; $199,648 for porters, watchmen and switch tenders; $170,558 for engineers and firemen; $157,045 for conductors, baggage and brake men; $128,638 for oil and waste; and about $90,000 for damage to goods, baggage, persons and property. The value of "materials on hand," at the close of the fiscal year (Sept. 30,) was a million of dollars; wood ($669,182) forming the principal item. The capital stock of the road amounts to $24,186,660, and the funded debt to $14,609,510. The earnings for five years past compare as follows, the 30th of September forming the close of each fiscal year:

	Passengers.	Freight.	Total.
1853,	$2,829,668	$1,835,572	$4,787,430
1854,	3,151,513	2,479,820	5,915,284
1855,	3,242,229	3,189,602	6,603,881
1856,	3,207,378	4,328,041	7,707,848
1857,	3,147,636	4,559,275	8,027,251

The remarkable feature in this table is the decrease in the Passenger and the large and steady increase in the Freight earnings. The former is partly attributable to the sharp competition with rival lines, the cutting down of fares, &c.; while the latter explains the rapid diminution on the Erie Canal Tolls, to which the Central Rail Road had proved itself a formidable competitor in the transportation of freight.

The casualties for the year aggregate as follows:

Passengers killed,	2
" injured,	5
Employees killed,	12
" injured,	10
Others killed,	22
" injured,	21

Of the 37 killed, 18 were lying, standing or walking on the track; and 17 of the 18 were neither "passengers" nor "employees."

As the whole number of passengers during the year was upwards of two million, six hundred thousand, the proportion of killed and injured is infinitesimally small, and shows great care and not a little good fortune in the running of the Road.

The following are the newly elected Directors:

Kansas—What will be done?

The following resolution passed at the Mass Convention in Kansas, prior to the meeting of the Legislature, indicates the method which may be taken to meet existing difficulties:

Resolved, That, looking chiefly to the above end, we respectfully memorialize the territorial Legislature, about to convene in extra session on the 7th inst., to frame a fair and impartial election law, and that they, under it, do submit the two constitutions—the people's constitution framed at Topeka, and the one framed at Lecompton—to a vote of the people of this territory, and that the said Legislature provide that the constitution which shall receive a majority of all the legal votes shall become the fundamental law for the State of Kansas.

The Topeka Constitution is a document, very generally satisfactory to the Free State men, though it contains one or two provisions which are not entirely satisfactory. These may be changed hereafter. The calling of this Legislature, conceded to be the lawful law-making power of the Territory, by Acting Governor Stanton, gives the Free State men at once a great advantage over their enemies. The presentation of that Topeka Constitution to Congress for ratification, after its adoption by the people, will try the mettle of many of the Congressmen. We shall see what we shall see.

THE PRESENT AND LATE SPEAKER.—The News, of Sunday, copies from the Boston Post an elaborate puff of the newly elected Speaker of the House of Representatives, accompanied by the following slur upon his predecessor:

And what, besides, is no unimportant commendation, considering how the speaker's chair has been filled for the last two years, he is an honest man, whom the corrupt lobbyites, who were supposed to be too near the little "iron man" of Massachussetts, will find it impossible to approach. Col. Orr is a man of altogether another stamp from the late speaker.

COL. ORR, will indeed be fortunate if he fills the Speaker's chair half so well as MR. BANKS did! The House of Representatives has not had, since the days of HENRY CLAY, a more prompt, impartial, dignified, honest and impartial presiding officer than MR. BANKS. The insinuations of the Post and News, that he was accessible to, or influenced by "the corrupt lobbyites," is the merest partizan calumny.

☞ The Superior Chronicle, of the 24th ult., has arrived, and is full of glory. It is "indebted to Russell Wheeler, Esq., of Milwaukee," for the "glorious" news that Jas. B. Cross is elected Governor, "by not less than 1,200 majority."—Madison Journal.

The President's Doctrine.

On the subject of Kansas affairs, and generally as to Slavery, Mr. Buchanan's doctrine amounts to this:

That the Kansas-Nebraska act did not require that the Constitution should be submitted to the People, and therefore the Convention had a right to take the course which it did take.

That if the People of Kansas refuse to walk into the trap laid for them, which compels them if they vote at all, to vote for the Constitution, they alone will be responsible for the results—possibly civil war.

That the phrase, guaranteeing the People the right to "form and regulate their domestic institutions in their own way," has reference only to slavery, and gives them no further claim to a vote upon a Constitution.

That, inasmuch as the Slaves now in the Territory were taken there under the protecting arm of the U. S. Constitution, any action interfering with the rights of their owners is illegal.

Concerning these monstrous doctrines, the New York Courier & Enquirer justly remarks:

They amount to precisely this—that popular sovereignty is worth nothing except when exercised upon the subject of NEGROES, and that even here its range is limited—that the Constitution of the U. S. authorizes negroes to be taken to every square mile of U. S. Territory, and to be held there in bondage for their entire natural lives, any State Constitution that may be formed over such Territory to the contrary notwithstanding. It would seem as if Mr. Buchanan had been smitten with a negro-mania, that he is under a hallucination that the Federal Government was established for no other earthly purpose than to take care that every white man in the country has a black man on his back. He thinks it a boon that the people of Kansas are allowed by the Lecompton Convention to say whether they will have more negroes than they now have, or not—a boon for which they can afford to be perfectly passive in regard to every other matter that concerns a State—but insists that they shall have no voice whatever in reference to the black chattels already among them. He does not actually deny that New York and Pennsylvania had the right to abolish slavery, but he does actually deny that Kansas has that right or ever will have it, for his doctrine is that the Slavery which is now in Kansas under the Constitution is inviolable. Those ideas of Mr. Buchanan upon this subject surpass anything that ever entered into the imagination of John C. Calhoun. It is the first time they have ever been proclaimed by a President of the United States, and it is certain that they will never be accepted short of a tremendous political struggle.

Secretary Stanton's Proclamation.

The leading Free Statemen of Kansas, together with two thirds of the Legislature elect, signed a paper, in which they pledged themselves to make no use of the special session, except to defeat the aims of the Lecompton Convention. The following is the Secretary's Proclamation, calling the special session:

To the Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Kansas.

An extraordinary occasion having occurred in the affair of the Territory, within the meaning of the 30th Section of the Organic Act, which authorizes the Legislature to be called together upon such occasions:

I, FREDERICK P. STANTON, Secretary of and Acting Governor, do hereby summon the Members of the Council and House of Representatives of the said Territory, to assemble in the House in their respective houses at Lecompton, on Monday next the 7th inst., then and there to consider matters of great moment, pertaining to the public welfare."

Given under the seal of the Territory at Lecompton, this the first day of Dec. A. D. '57.
L. S. FRED. P. STANTON.

A "SAD MISTAKE."—The Richmond (Va.) Enquirer plends in moving terms with the Northern Democracy to stand fast in defence of the Lecompton Constitution. The conduct of some of the Congressmen in opposing it strikes the Enquirer unfavorably. It says:

This is, we think, a sad mistake on the part of those members of the Northern wing of the National Democratic party, who are so refractory in a crisis like this. And we cannot but hope that they will soon acknowledge their error, and acquiesce in the sentiment favorable to the admission of Kansas with the Lecompton Constitution. If they do not, their course may prove seriously injurious to the party.

Think of it, ye doubting democrats! If you don't allow the Slavery plotters to have their own way, they will forsake your party. It is only the old appeal in a new shape. You have always made away manfully with whatever quantity of earth (vulgice dirt) these Southern masters have set before you. Why bolt at another bushel?

ENGLISH GENERALS.—Gen'l Havelock, the gallant commander in India, has risen from the ranks.

Sir Colin Campbell, commander in-chief of the Indian army, is the son of a "Scotch cousin" of the Duke of Argyle, by a man named McLiverty, a shepherd on the Duke's estates. She insisted on her son's taking her name, and in his youth obtained him the commission with which he commenced his splendid career.

Gen'l Nicholson, recently killed at Delhi, was an Irish boy, who also gained an inferior commission, and fought his way to high rank with the fiery gallantry of his race.

"SAID THE SPIDER TO THE FLY."—The London Times affectionately urges the people of the United States to adopt entire free trade as the best remedy for their financial difficulties. If we will buy all our manufactures of England, instead of so great a share of them, the Times thinks we shall soon be out of our difficulties.—Det. Adv.

Very likely. After a little longer experience of democratic policy, our mechanics and manufacturing operatives can start in a body for England, and seek employment there. Their occupation will be pretty much gone here.

RAILROAD JUNCTION AT RIVER FALLS.—We were never inclined to puff this or any other place into undeserved notoriety. In common with the rest of our citizens, we have always thought our prospects for railroads were good, but we have said little or nothing about them.—The probability now is that we shall be a connecting point between the Eastern Land Grant Road and the Superior and St. Croix Road. Mr. John Lockwood, President, and Mr. H. O. Calkins, agent of the Superior Road, have been at this place, and our citizens have donated the Company about $50,000, upon the condition that the Superior Road connect at this place with the Eastern Road. In Hudson about $200,000 worth of property have been donated to the Company on condition that Hudson be made the terminus on the St. Croix, and that the Road run from there "to a point at or near River Falls."

It is expected that the grading between Hudson and this place will be commenced next summer. Of the advantages to be derived from these roads we will not speculate. Combine the beautiful situation of our village and its immense water power with the railroad importance it promises to have, and the result will be satisfactory to its most sanguine friends.—River Falls (Pierce Co.) Journal, Dec. 5.

AN UNFORTUNATE MAGAZINE.—The Atlantic Monthly may as well settle up its affairs, and die. Having been so indiscreet as to publish an article denouncing the sort of thraldom in which twenty odd millions of people in the free states are kept by the 300,000 slaveholders, it has fallen under the ban of the Fond du Lac Union, and thereupon receives its quietus, as follows:

The article referred to is worthy of the pen of Wendell Phillips or any of the New England Abolitionists. We are sorry that the Atlantic Monthly has so soon outlived its usefulness, and advise all democrats to taboo it as they do the "Tribune" and other publications of the Abolition stripe.

If the "Monthly" meets with the hard fortune of the Tribune in the matter of circulation, it is a "dead sure" thing.

NEW JUDICIAL DISTRICT.—Petitions are in circulation asking the Legislature to create a new judicial district by dividing the First, which comprises Racine, Kenosha, and Walworth counties, &c. The Elkhorn Independent suggests that the object—to make a more equal division of labor and business—might be gained by a new arrangement of the present districts.

FLIRTS NOT DAMAGEABLE.—Miss Hester A. Burgess sued N. F. Wood, in Kanawha county, Va., last week, for damages for breach of promise. It was proved in evidence that the young lady was a flirt, and the jury awarded her one cent damages.

Perilous Voyage of the Kershaw.

P. WAGSTAFF, one of the crew of the barque KERSHAW, gives the Detroit Advertiser the following account of her voyage;

The BARQUE C. J. KERSHAW.—The C. J. Kershaw, as we noticed yesterday morning, has been laid up for the winter in the canal basin at Montreal. Mr. P. Wagstaff, who went out as one of her crew, reached this city yesterday morning by the Great Western Railway. In a conversation with him, we gleaned some particulars of the Kershaw's return trip which will be of interest to our readers. She sailed from Liverpool on the 22d of Sept., drawing over eleven feet of water. When only thirty-six hours out, she met a violent gale, and being heavily laden, lay like a dead weight in the water, and would not raise with the sea. Her patent topsail raising apparatus would not work, and in working at it, some of the irons were broken. She put back to Liverpool, discharged about sixty tons of iron, dispensed with the patent reefing apparatus, fixed her sails upon the old plan, and again set sail.

This time she had been out nine days, when another terrible gale came up, which lasted four days, blowing with great fury. The sea made clear breaches over her, filled her cabin completely, smashed in all her state-rooms, put out the fires, wet and spoiled all the provisions, and in short almost entirely demolished the whole cabin. Every rag of sail was taken in, and the vessel put under bare poles. Capt. Pierce threw overboard forty crates of crockery, and all the spare spars, &c., which could be got at in order to lighten her. The sailors and passengers were obliged to live on raw bacon and hard bread, as no fires could be built.

Mr. Wagstaff, who has been on salt water a number of years, describes it as the most severe gale he was ever in. He regards it as altogether miraculous that none of the crew were lost overboard. A heavy sea struck Captain Pierce, who was standing near the pilot house, and swept him forward with terrible violence against the main rigging. If he had not struck the rigging, he must have gone overboard. At one time, when the cabin was full of water, and every sea was breaking over them, Capt. Pierce himself gave up the vessel as lost, and every soul on board were in momentary expectation of going to the bottom. But thanks to the builders of the Kershaw, she was proof against the elements, and outlived the sea in gallant style. If she had not been as strong as wood and iron could make her, she must inevitably have gone to the bottom. The Captain's wife and another lady passenger were on board, both of whom behaved heroically during the trying scene.

Capt. Pierce put back to Falmouth, where he laid one week and repaired. When he reached Falmouth the Kershaw was as tight as a drum, not a seam nor a plank having started. While in Falmouth, many a large ship came into that port, with spars broken and gone, and most of them leaking badly. The Kershaw was visited by hundreds, and the fact of her having come out of the storm in such fine style, was a matter of general comment.

After repairing thoroughly, Capt. Pierce again set sail, on the 16th of October. Had fair weather until reaching the Gulf of St. Lawrence, about the middle of November, when he was met by head winds, and had a succession of the same until reaching Quebec. The buoys in the Gulf were all taken up, and no pilot was to be had.—Capt. Pierce, therefore, was obliged to pilot his vessel up the channel himself. He came up the north channel, which is the most dangerous of the two; and got through without an accident. The Kershaw is the only vessel which ever reached Quebec from the Atlantic, without a pilot, and is the last vessel which left Liverpool for that port. She was five days in sight of Bank Island, 150 miles below Quebec, and could not reach it on account of the head winds. Met ice sixty miles below Quebec, and from there to Montreal found plenty of it. Thirty miles below Quebec, two of the crew took a boat and went ashore for provisions, lost the boat and could not return, and were obliged to walk to Quebec.—Found the ice thick and heavy in Montreal, and had much difficulty in getting into the basin.

To add to the difficulties in coming up the St. Lawrence river, they were short handed, three of the crew having left the vessel in Liverpool and Falmouth, and another was sick, this left only four men before the mast. Ice was constantly forming on her decks, from the spray, and most of the time was nearly a foot thick.

Considering the bad luck, Capt. Pierce has experienced, throughout the return trip, we think he has done extremely well to reach Montreal as he did.

The greater portion of the Kershaw's cargo is crockery, iron and steel, though she has on a considerable quantity of ship chandlery, paints, oils &c. A portion of her cargo is consigned to Montreal, some to Hamilton, Cleveland, Detroit and Chicago.

Later News from Utah and the Plains.

[From the Weston Mo. Dispatch, extra, Dec. 2.]

In consequence of the great interest which is felt in relation to affairs in Utah, and upon the plains, we hasten to lay the following before our readers:

By the arrival of an express from Ham's Fork, sent in by Waddell, Russell & Co., and also bearing government dispatches, we have much later news from the plains than that which has been published. The expressman, Mr. Stephen T. Rannabarger, who was wagon-master of the train of Messrs. Waddell, Russell & Co., which was destroyed by the Mormons, left Ham's fork about 1 o'clock on the morning of November 1st, and arrived in this city this evening.

Mr. Rannabarger had charge of the cattle of the destroyed train of Waddell, Russell & Co., but having only nine men they were attached by about seventy-five Mormons within two miles of Colonel Alexander's command, and the cattle taken from him. He informs us that the Mormons had burnt the grass in every direction, and that the government stock was starving and freezing to death at the rate of fifteen or twenty per day. This is the more seriously felt, as the horses attached to the battery are from this cause already inadequate to the service required of them.

The news from Salt Lake, received up to the time of the departure of the express fully confirms the news already received of the determined resistance of the Mormons. All of the mountain passes are strongly fortified, at each of which is stationed forty or fifty men, who in their position are well able to stop the further approach of our troop during the winter.

Col. Alexander had taken three Mormon prisoners; among them, a brother of the notorious murderer, W. H. Hickman. It was the custom of the Mormons to keep a party of camp followers constantly in the rear of the troops, for the purpose of getting all the stock left behind as strays, &c. A file of soldiers were concealed in a ravine to capture one of these parties and a single man sent out as a decoy. The Mormons readily took the bait and were led in pursuit of the single soldier to the ambush, when the soldiers fired, killing one and taking the three prisoners before mentioned.

Col. Johnson was met on the Big Sandy, seventy miles from Ham's fork, having under his charge and escort all of the government provision trains, and also the trains of the different traders, and was averaging about ten miles per day, and expressed a determination to go into Salt Lake City this winter.

Met Col. Cook with his regiment of cavalry at Grease Wood creek, twelve miles this side of Independence rock—was destitute of corn for his horses; would reach the camp of Col. Alexander in ten or twelve days.

Forty of Megraw's men, belonging to the wagon road expedition, had been mustered into service. Some of these complain loudly of Megraw's inhumanity toward them, alleging that they had been abandoned on the plains seventy-eight or eighty miles from assistance, without provisions.

It was thought that all the teamsters on the road would be mustered into service.

Jesse Jones was a prisoner in Salt Lake City, enjoying the freedom of the place, but restricted from going beyond its limits.

The Mormons say that they will fight to the death in defence of their city if the troops attempt an entrance this winter, and that in the spring they will burn the city and go to the mountains, where they have provisions to last them for four or five years.

Mr. Rannabarger came through alone a distance of 1200 miles; passed through about one hundred lodges of Indians, but was not molested; encountered much rain, sleet, and snow on the other end of the roads; was lost two days in a snow storm at South pass, and laid by at Laramie three days; from there encountered much snow before he reached Patterson ranch.

Met two outgoing mails—one at Independence rock, and the other at O'Fallon's bluff, on the South Platte. Mr. R. will return with dispatches, leaving Fort Leavenworth on Saturday next.

"PEORIA CITY BATTLE FIELD."—A handsome painting bearing the above title has been donated to the State Historical Society by Messrs. Brookes & Stevenson of Milwaukee. It represents one of the battle fields of the Black Hawk War in Wisconsin, situated on the Pecatonica River in Lafayette County, and will be a fine addition to the historical collection of landscapes already in the gallery of the Society.—Madison Argus.

CRAWFORD'S SUCCESSOR.—Mr. Randolph Rogers has been appointed by the Commissioners of the Washington Monument, at Richmond, Virginia, to construct the remaining statues of that great work, and to complete the monument.—The original plan of the eagles upon the six low set pedestals, has been changed. The birds are discarded, and shields, with appropriate devices, will be substituted in their places.

Critical Position of Gen. Havelock

From the London Cronicle, Nov. 24.

The Indus's passengers describe the excitement prevailing in Calcutta as much greater at the news of Lucknow being relieved, than at that of the capture of Delhi—a difference which arose from the fearful apprehensions previously entertained respecting the fate of the besieged in the capital of Oude. The rejoicings, therefore, at Havelock's and Outram's victories were excessive, but the passengers represent that these rejoicings were quelled when news was circulated that Havelock had written most urgently for reinforcements, and that it was found he was so hemmed in that he was in as dangerous a predicament as the garrison he had so gallantly relieved. He was surrounded, it was said, by 50,000 mutineers. The traitor Maun Singh was his principal assailant. Nena Sahib, was it is asserted wounded before Lucknow. The urgency of Havelock's demand for reinforcements was so great that the Calcutta government was hurrying the troops away by a hundred at a time, and these troops had to get up the country the best way they could. The difficulty of these troops getting provisions and means of transit is, it appears very great. Some of the Bombay passengers state that when they stepped on board the mail packet, is was rumored that the news had been received from Madras that the Europeans at Lucknow were in a most critical position, and that their retreat was completely cut off. The blowing away from the guns of two mutineers at Bombay had caused the utmost excitement amongst the native troops, and much alarm was still felt in the Bombay Presidency. Calcutta was filled with refugees, and ladies who arrived out from Europe were obliged to be kept on board ship.

A RASCAL CAUGHT.—The chief agent in kidnapping the two colored young men from their home in Geneva, N. Y., was a fellow by the name of Van Tyle. He had been engaged as a clerk in a dry goods store in that town. He was a member of one of the Christian churches, and he was paying his attentions to a respectable young lady of the place, to whom he was engaged to be married. Gan Tyle was the man who represented that he had an uncle in Columbus, keeping a hotel, who would pay the young men twenty-five dollars a month. He started with the young men from Geneva, and kept straight on to Covington, where he and his accomplices sold one of the colored men into slavery,—the other having escaped at the Carlisle station from Van Tyle.—He (V. T.) afterwards returned to Dayton, from which place he wrote a letter to his lady love in Geneva, which letter was intercepted.

He gave a grossly false account of his conduct in the case. Supposing that his rascality was undiscovered, he returned last week to Geneva, where he was arrested and put in jail. A telegraphic dispatch was received here on Saturday stating the fact, and requesting that Daniel Prue, the colored man who escaped from the kidnappers, be sent on immediately to Geneva. He was wanted there as a witness. "Prue, on being informed, said he was ready to start, but had not money enough to take him there. A purse was raised, and this morning Prue took his seat in the cars for his home in Geneva, where we hope his testimony will materially aid in convicting the scoundrel and sending him to the State Prison for the remainder of his life.—Columbus Jour

CALEB WALL'S ADV'TS
CITY AUCTION ROOM.

City Auction Room.

I GAVE NOTICE through our papers last week, that I had a large stock of Dry Goods in store at New York, from Sixth Avenue, No. 630, corner of Twenty first st. The goods are all from New York, and no other place; and as regards the goods, there are not many fancy ones; in much the better. They are plain, substantial goods, which we all want every day in our families. The goods are now all opened in the store on the west side of the river, formerly occupied by J. L. Pierce, where they will remain for thirty or sixty days. It is no intention of mine whatever to open a retail store, although I have as much right to do as I please, as anyone else has to do as he pleases. I have heard that several of our merchants complain that I am injuring the trade by selling goods to low. I would kindly say to those merchants that the goods are all paid for, and if they will come and purchase them of me at a reduced price, I will give them credit, provided they can give me good paper, endorsed for half twelve months; or I will sell the entire stock out, which amounts to twenty thousand dollars, on the following terms: One-fourth cash in three months—balance in one, two or three years, with seven per cent. interest, secured by a mortgage on property in our city. But I shall continue to retail the goods until they are all sold, and I would say to all our old friends to go and get great bargains. There is every kind of goods you want at fifty per cent less than ever sold in this city before. Mr. Ayres has the entire charge of the said goods. I attend to all auction business at the old corner; and will give it that strict attention I always have done. Any one having stocks of goods to sell, I am ready at all times to purchase the same. Call on me.
dec8 CALEB WALL, City Auctioneer.

City Auction Room.

SIX VALUABLE and very desirable lots in Sherman's Addition, I now offer and will sell at Public Auction, at my Auction Room on Wednesday, Dec. 16th, at 10 o'clock, A. M., the following Are the Lots:—

Lot 11, 14, Block 10.
" 7, 10, 11, " 11.
" " 3, " 3.

The said lots are 50 feet front, and 200 feet deep, twice the size of lots that have been laid off in new additions. Sherman's Addition is a desirable and busy spot. If any one has a stock of Dry Goods, or Groceries, or Boots and Shoes, or Hardware, or Furniture, I will exchange and pay the balance in cash. The title to said Lots are perfect. No mortgage on them if sold at auction. The terms of sale will be half cash, balance in one year with six per cent interest.

GREAT AND EXTENSIVE stock of Dry Goods to be sold at Auction and private sale.—Twenty-two thousand dollars worth from Sixth Avenue, New York. I have rented for one month the store down, west side, formerly occupied by J. L. Pierce, where the said goods are now opening, and will commence on next Tuesday morning, Dec. 1st, at 10 o'clock, and sell at the said store room all or so many of the goods as may be bid for. This will be one of the greatest sales of Dry Goods which has ever taken place in this city. Country merchants and dealers would do well to attend it.—Goods sold for cash. It is useless to give a list of the goods. Let every one come and see for themselves.
nov28 CALEB WALL, Auctioneer.

City Auction Room.

I HAVE JUST RETURNED from New York City after an absence of two weeks. I am now home ready to attend to all the business in my line. I have a tremendous quantity of various kinds of goods coming out to me from New York, which I am authorized to sell at public auction for cash. As soon as the goods arrive the same will be given. I would also say to my friends in the city and in the state generally that I have made arrangements with responsible brokers in New York, who will keep me posted about sales of Rail Road Bonds and Bonds and Mortgages, when they can be sold for cash, and how they can be exchanged for merchandize. All who have any Stocks, Bonds or Mortgages, on any Rail Road in our State, or any Bonds and Mortgages on any property in our city or in our State, they will leave them with me, or with the firm of Ogden & Wall, they will be disposed of according to direction.
nov24 CALEB WALL.
